

Barrell Bourbon Batch 017

Hello, marzipan. Barrell, which made my pick for American whiskey of the year in 2018, seems to have the marzipan note quite often. Here, it's on the nose, palate and finish. But it's so much more than marzipan. Notes of honey, apple, caramel and jalapeño hit here and there, but it's the raw cookie dough note that I love the most- after the marzipan, of course.

Very nice finish. Score: 91

as seen in Forbes Magazine.
